Preface

This YAEP Policy Manual contains all of the policies of the Association.

This manual was initiated in 2014. The policies and regulations that used to be in the document known as the 'YAEP Handbook' were the starting point for this version of the manual. The policies and regulations are now all called "Policies" and have been organized into different sections in this manual.

Other materials that were found in the old YAEP Handbook were the constitution and bylaws of the organization. The constitution was revoked in 2014 (as it overlapped with the Teaching Professions Act which has precedence).

The bylaws continue to exist separate from this manual. However, everything in the policy manual must be consistent with YAEP bylaws. If there is a conflict, the content of the bylaws shall prevail. And the Acts governing YAEP prevail over the YAEP bylaws.

YAEP Governing Documents

Teaching Professions Act (Yukon)

The Yukon's Teaching Professions Act, passed in the late 1980's, sets out in legislation the objectives of YAEP, and a framework for its structure. This Act defines the Association's powers; outlines possible membership categories and how membership fees will be collected; identifies that bylaws can be created by YAEP; and specifies that membership meetings shall be held at least once a year. The Act also put into law the requirement for YAEP to develop a Code of Ethics and establish a Discipline Committee.

Education Act (Yukon)

The Education Act defines the roles and responsibilities of all partners involved in the education of Yukon students. The Act includes sections on: territorial administration; students and parents; school operations; Yukon First Nations; French language and separate school rights; school committees, councils and boards; appeals; teachers; finances; and bargaining agent.

Education Labour Relations Act (Yukon)

This act establishes the Yukon Teachers Labour Relations Board and defines a number of things related to collective bargaining. This includes information on how bargaining rights are acquired and terminated; what collective bargaining involves; how disputes are dealt with; how grievances will be adjudicated; and parameters for strikes and lockouts. This Act affirms that YAEP is the current bargaining agent for teachers, Education Assistants, and Teachers On Call.

YAEP Bylaws

YAEP has Bylaws that further govern how it operates. The Bylaws include sections on the following matters:

1. Membership
2. Finances
3. Meetings
4. Executive

5. Conflict of Interest
6. Indemnification
7. Central Council
8. Officers & Duties
9. Committees & Sub-Associations
10. Elections & Voting
11. Limitation of Power
12. Discipline

The Bylaws can only be amended by the membership at General Meetings by extraordinary resolutions. Such resolutions require 21 days notice to members and at least 75% of members voting at the meeting must approve the resolution.

Policy & Procedures

Much of YAEP's business is guided by policies and procedures. The policies cover topics such as: the structure and duties of committees; travel and accommodation rates; financial matters; standing rules for General Meetings; legal services; and other organizational matters. They also include policy statements on broader issues related to teaching, learning environments and societal issues.

Policy-Making in YAEP

Most YAEP policies are developed by the Executive Committee to assist in the management of the organization. Policies can also be developed and approved by Central Council and by the membership at General Meetings.

The power for the Executive and Central Council to make policies is identified in Section 9 of the Teaching Professions Act.

Subject to and in accordance with the bylaws and any resolution of the annual general meeting of the teachers' association, the Central Council, Executive, and Table Officers shall govern, control, and administer the affairs of the teachers association and shall exercise all rights and powers vested in the teacher.

YAEP's bylaws reinforce the investment of powers in the Executive and other bodies. Under the duties and powers of the Executive, it states:

- The Executive shall, subject to the action of the Annual General, or Special General, Meeting of the Association, or a meeting of the Central Council, exercise all the powers of the Association, the direction and supervision of its business, and the conduct of the affairs of the Association.
- The Executive shall attend to the business of the Association between Annual General Meetings, Special General Meetings or meetings of the Central Council.

Under the section outlining the structure and role of the Central Council the bylaws state:

The Central Council may, both at its own discretion, or at the request of the Executive, consider any question affecting the Association, and direct the Executive accordingly.

Role of YAEP Members in Policy-Making

Policies can also be passed as resolutions at the General Meetings of the members (see the Resolutions Policy in this manual for more information). Many of the policies in this manual, particularly those found in the Teaching & Employment, Student and Learning Environment and Societal Issues sections, are from resolutions voted on by the membership.

In the event a member has a concern about a policy passed by the Executive or Central Council, the bylaws include a section called “Limitations of Power” which states:

Any policy matter passed by the Executive or Central Council shall be referred to the membership for approval upon petition of twenty percent of the membership. All action on the referred policy shall cease pending the outcome of the referendum.

Policy Committee

The YAEP has a Policy Committee who is charged with making sure this manual is kept up to date, under the direction of the Executive and in consultation with other YAEP committees. The Chair of the committee is elected by the membership and sits on the Executive. Other committee members are also members of the association.

Such notice shall include particulars of the alleged misconduct and advise that a threshold determination will be made as to whether the matter should be put to a vote of the Executive.

If 75% of all members of the Executive vote to declare the Individual's position vacant, the Executive shall, within 14 days of the vote, provide a letter to the Individual summarizing the evidence which established each instance of gross misconduct, the minutes from the proceeding, and information regarding how to appeal the declaration of Executive vacancy.

Appealing Declarations of Executive Vacancies for Gross Misconduct

Policy Statement: A declaration by the Executive Committee made pursuant to Bylaw 8.5.a.iv that a position is deemed vacant due to “gross misconduct” (the “Declaration”) may be appealed to the Central Council. The Central Council applies a standard of reasonableness to the Declaration and bases its judgment on the information available to the Executive at the time of the Declaration. The Central Council decides the appeal by way of majority secret ballot and may either affirm or reverse the Declaration.

1. Standard of Review

- a. The individual appealing the Declaration (the “Appellant”) bears the onus of establishing, on a balance of probabilities, that the Declaration was unreasonable based on the information and evidence before the Executive Committee at the time the Declaration was made.
- b. The Central Council shall review the Executive’s decision letter particularizing the gross misconduct (“the Decision Letter”) to determine if it is based on internally coherent reasoning, and whether the Declaration is reasonably justified in relation to the relevant facts, evidence, policies, Bylaws, and submissions.
- c. The Central Council will not conduct a fresh hearing of the evidence or receive new evidence. The decision of the Central Council will be based on the information and evidence that was before the Executive at the time the vote occurred, and any submissions on appeal relating thereto.
- d. The Central Council shall not re-hear, reconsider, or vary any of the specific findings related to the Declaration under appeal. Rather, the Central Council will either affirm or reverse the Declaration, by a majority secret vote.
- e. To ensure procedural fairness and impartial decision making, the Executive may only participate in the appeal as a party (the “Respondent”) and members of the Executive Committee shall not vote in the appeal.

2. Appeal Notice

- a. A Declaration can only be appealed by the individual about whom the Declaration was made. That person may act through an authorized representative if they choose to do so.
- b. To appeal the Declaration, the Appellant must provide a written Appeal Notice to the President by email no later than 30 days after receiving the Decision Letter, unless the Appellant has received an extension of that deadline from the President.
- c. The Appeal Notice should identify and explain the reasons why the Appellant believes the Declaration was not reasonable. The Appeal Notice should only address the reasons in the Decision Letter, the evidence, information, or issues that were before the Executive when the Declaration was made, and/or procedural issues relating to the Declaration.

3. Submissions

- a. After receiving the Appeal Notice, the President shall arrange for the appeal to be considered and decided at the next scheduled meeting of the Central Council, or shall call a special meeting of the Central Council to consider the appeal.
- b. Both the Executive and the Appellant have the right to provide an appeal submission in writing but are not required to, and may provide submissions through a Representative. The Executive shall provide any submission in response to the Appeal Notice within 14 days of the President receiving the Appeal Notice. Levels of authority:

- i. AGM or Special General Meeting
- ii. Central Council
- iii. Executive
- iv. Committees and Sub-Associations

Standing Rules for YAEP General Meetings

1. General Information

- a. The Annual General Meeting is the major policy-making authority of the Association, in that it decides for or against issues brought before it in the form of resolutions from teachers, committees, sub-Association, the Executive, and Council. The Annual General Meeting involves the entire membership of the Yukon Association of Education Professionals.

2. Standing Rules

a. Right to Attend

- i. All members of the YAEP have the right to attend the meeting.

b. Right to Speak

- i. Except by consent of the meeting only members are entitled to speak.
- ii. The right to speak is on recognition of the Chair and is obtained by standing or raising a hand. The only exception arises with points of privilege and order. Every person shall identify himself or herself when granted recognition by the Chair.
- iii. The Chair shall, in recognizing speakers, have the right to deviate from the order in which persons seek recognition so as to permit a speaker or speakers to present a contrary point of view from that of those who have already spoken.
- iv. No speaker may, without the consent of the meeting, speak more than once or for longer than three minutes on each motion, main or subsidiary. This rule shall not deprive the mover of the right to close debate.
- v. It should be noted that asking and answering questions do not constitute speaking to a motion.
- vi. Questions and answers must be directed through the Chair.

c. Agenda

- i. The preparation of the agenda shall be the responsibility of the President.
- ii. The agenda may contain the hours at which each session shall convene and adjourn and business to be transacted during each session.
- iii. When the agenda is presented to the meeting for adoption, the President or Executive shall recommend additions, if any, to that agenda.
- iv. The Annual General Meeting or Council Meeting shall, from time to time, make rules concerning which of its component parts shall have the right to submit matters for the consideration of the meeting.

d. Motion to Adopt or Amend Standing Rules

- i. Such a motion shall, if required, be the first order of business.

e. Motion to Adopt Agenda

- i. The agenda shall be circulated to the members. On behalf of the Executive there may be a resolution to amend the agenda to add items originating with the Executive or submitted to the Executive. The content of these items and the proposed time allotment for discussion shall be circulated to the members prior to the motion to amend the agenda.

- ii. At subsequent times during the meeting, a motion to add an item to the agenda (except as new business), to delete an item from the agenda or to alter the time of consideration of an item shall be in order, subject to the rules contained herein.

f. Motion to Adopt Minutes

- i. There shall be a motion to adopt the minutes of the previous meeting. These minutes shall have been circulated to YAEP members.

g. Motions to Amend the Agenda (Subsequent to its Adoption)

- i. Motions to amend the agenda include all alterations to the printed agenda and amendments thereto, adopted in the commencement of the meeting, including:
 - (1) Time changes to adjourn;
 - (2) Time changes to convene;
 - (3) Alterations of time allotted to consider an item;
 - (4) Motions to reconsider:
 - (a) reconsiderations of a defeated motion;
 - (b) proposal to amend a motion already adopted;
 - (c) a motion to rescind a motion already adopted.
 - (5) Addition of items to be considered;
 - (6) Except where it is obviously impossible (such as alteration of time to adjourn the present session or to convene the immediate subsequent session) all motions to amend the agenda, subsequent to its adoption, require notice of motion.

h. Main Motions

- i. Main motions must be moved and seconded. It is the primary responsibility of the sponsoring body of a main motion to move and second, but it is the right of any member to move or second any main motion.
- ii. Recommendations of YAEP committees take precedence over resolutions from individuals.

i. Substitute Resolutions

- i. The meeting may accept a motion to amend the agenda calling for debate at a subsequent session on a resolution.
- ii. The normal procedure shall be that such substitute resolutions be prepared in consultation between the sponsor(s) of the main motions and the appropriate committee.
- iii. A motion duly moved and seconded becomes the property of the meeting and may not be withdrawn without unanimous consent of the members.

j. Amendments

- i. An amendment to be in order may change the wording of the resolution or amendment to which it applies by addition, deletion or substitution of words. The amended resolution must retain the basic intent of the original motion.

k. Subsidiary Motion

i. General Information

- (1) No subsidiary motion is in order until after the chair is satisfied that an opportunity has been given to present the affirmative and negative points of view.
- (2) No member who has participated in the debate on a main motion or an amendment shall move a subsidiary motion thereto.

ii. Refer Main Motion with or without Amendment

- (3) A motion to refer must indicate the body to which the motion is to be referred, may empower action, or may require a report to a subsequent Annual General Meeting, to the Executive or to the Council.

iii. Postpone Main Motion

- (1) Postponement to a later session of the meeting can be achieved by a motion to amend the agenda. Postponement to a subsequent Annual General Meeting has the effect of ordering the inclusion of that item on the agenda of the subsequent meeting.

iv. Table Main Motion

- (1) A two-thirds majority is required to table main motions.
- (2) Any tabled motion may be lifted from the table by motion to amend the agenda. Notice is required that such motion will be presented at a subsequent session. The motion to lift from the table is debatable but non-amendable.

v. Previous Question

- (1) The motion to move the previous question takes precedence over all subsidiary motions except to table. The mover must be recognized by the chair. The motion cannot be debated or amended. A two-thirds majority is required.

l. Extraordinary Resolutions

- i. Extraordinary resolutions are amendments to the Bylaws. It is recommended that the notice of motion contain the words "with or without amendment" so as to clarify the legal position of the meeting to propose amendments to the material as circulated.

m. Committee of the Whole

- i. The meeting may, when considering any item on the agenda, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole. The procedure is used for two reasons:
 - (1) The topic is sufficiently complex to warrant interim decisions which will become binding only after passage of a final composite resolution recommended to the meeting by the Committee of the Whole, or;

- (2) The matter is a sensitive one and it is the opinion of the meeting that only YAEP members and staff should be in attendance.
 - (3) Whenever a meeting resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole, observers are requested to leave.
- ii. The procedure is for delegates to move and second that the meeting resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, naming the chairperson of the Committee. After discussion during which the standing rules may be waived, the Committee of the Whole moves to rise, and report to the meeting. A motion is then placed before the meeting, which repeats the words of the report of the committee. Only the motion carried by the meeting in regular session appears in the minutes.
- n. Point of Privilege
 - i. The point must concern the welfare or reputation of a member, a group of members or the YAEP as a whole. The Chair is required to rule immediately on the validity of the point. The ruling of the chair is subject to challenge.
 - o. Point of Order
 - i. The point must concern an alleged breach of standing rules and must receive an immediate ruling from the chair. Ruling is subject to challenge.
 - p. Call for Order of the Day
 - i. The point is that there is a deviation from the agenda. It must receive immediate attention and the ruling of the chair is subject to challenge.
 - q. Challenge
 - i. If any member is dissatisfied with any ruling of the chair, the ruling may be challenged. A motion to sustain the chair takes precedence over all other business.
 - ii. When a ruling of the chair is challenged by a member, all other business is suspended. The member making the challenge has the right to present an argument to the meeting as to why the ruling is in error. The chair has the right to defend the ruling. The vote on the motion to sustain the chair follows immediately without further debate.
 - r. Scrutineers
 - i. A slate of candidates for general scrutineers shall be provided for the approval of the AGM at its opening business session.
 - ii. The convention floor should be divided into a number of clearly defined areas.
 - iii. Recounts shall be taken by ballot.
 - s. Reports and Resolutions
 - i. It is desirable that the President, Treasurer, and Committee Chairpersons prepare three copies of their annual report to be filed as follows: one copy in the chairperson's personal file, one copy for the secretary of the committee, the third copy for YAEP office files.
 - ii. A copy of each annual report is published and available at the AGM.

- iii. The President provides opportunity on the AGM agenda for delegates to ask questions concerning information reports.
- iv. Rules for presentation of resolutions at the AGM will be published in an issue of the YAEP Notes two months prior to the AGM.
{NOTE: Please refer to YAEP's 2014 Resolution Policy for additional details}
- t. Suspension of Standing Rules
 - i. A motion to suspend the standing rules requires notice at a previous session of an AGM or Council Meeting and two-thirds majority vote. Standing rules may be suspended without notice by unanimous consent providing the suspension is not contrary to the bylaws.
- u. Matters not covered in Standing Rules
 - i. When the chair is required to make a ruling not covered by these rules, guidance shall be sought from Robert's Rules of Order.

YAEP Violence and Harassment Policy

Policy Statement: The Yukon Association of Education Professionals is committed to providing a workplace in which all persons can expect to be treated with dignity and respect. Violence and harassment shall not be tolerated from any person in the workplace, including supervisors, employees, members and members of the public. All reports of harassment of elected and non-elected YTA staff shall be addressed in a timely manner through a clear and respectful process. The YAEP will apply and comply with the Violence and Harassment Policy and will ensure that its procedures and principles are followed.

1. Scope of Policy

- a. This policy is intended to protect all non-elected employees and elected YEAP officials.
- b. Harassment is any improper or offensive behavior that, whether physical, verbal, cyber or by innuendo, interferes with an individual's work performance or advancement or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment. Harassment can take many forms, including personal harassment, sexual harassment and abuse of authority. It may be physical or verbal in nature. It may involve one incident or a series of incidents.
 - i. Personal harassment means any unwarranted, offensive behaviour that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome. It includes any comment, conduct, gesture or display that demeans, intimidates or causes embarrassment to another person. Personal harassment includes but is not limited to harassment on the basis of race, religion, creed, colour, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, ethnic or national origin, age, physical or mental health condition or political belief.
 - ii. Sexual harassment means any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature that is likely to cause offense, embarrassment or humiliation to the recipient or that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the recipient as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion, or on receipt of a service or benefit provided by the YAEP.
 - iii. Abuse of authority means an individual's use of power and authority inherent in the position held in a manner which serves no legitimate work purpose, and which ought reasonably to be known to be inappropriate. It includes misuses of power, which are intimidating, coercive or demeaning.
 - iv. Workplace violence includes any threatened, attempted or actual application of physical force towards an individual that is likely to cause harm or lead an individual to believe that they are likely to be harmed. Violence can cause physical or psychological injuries.

The legitimate and proper exercise of authority for a legitimate work purpose, including but not limited to supervising or managing through performance reviews, work evaluation and/or disciplinary measures does not constitute harassment under this policy.

- c. Anyone raising a concern under this policy must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a serious issue. Any allegations that prove to have been made maliciously or that were known to be false shall be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

- d. This policy does not replace the YAEP Code of Ethics for issues between YAEP members nor does it provide two avenues for complainants by YAEP elected officials. YAEP elected officials may report a complaint either through this policy or under the YAEP Code of Ethics, if the respondent is a member of the YAEP, but may not change the process once initiated nor seek redress under the other process if not satisfied.
- e. The YAEP prohibits any form of retaliatory action against a person who participates in a harassment investigation, including a person who files a complaint of harassment or provides evidence about harassment. Retaliatory actions include but are not limited to placing undue pressure on or attempting to influence a participant, making negative changes to their conditions of employment, engaging in personal harassment or denying a professional or other work opportunity.
- f. A finding in favour of the complainant(s) may result in disciplinary action ranging from, but not confined to: verbal or written reprimand, referral to the YAEP Ethics Committee (if applicable), requirement to complete relevant training, suspension, termination of employment, or, in accordance with YTA Bylaws, remove a respondent from office.

2. Prevention of Violence and Harassment

- a. Violence and harassment in the workplace are prohibited.
- b. Every individual is entitled to a workplace free of violence and harassment.
- c. The YAEP is committed to eliminating or, if not practical, controlling the risks of violence and harassment in the workplace.
- d. All YAEP staff and elected YAEP officials have the right to bring complaints of violence or harassment to the YAEP or, if the person alleged to have committed violence or harassment is a member of management at the YAEP, to another person as set out in this policy.
- e. The YAEP will not disclose the circumstances related to an incident or complaint of violence or harassment or the names of the complainant/victim, the person alleged to have committed the violence or harassment, or any witnesses, except:
 - i. where to do so it would be necessary to
 - (1) investigate the incident or complaint;
 - (2) take corrective action;
 - (3) inform the persons involved in the incident or complaint of the results of the investigation and any corrective action to be taken to address the incident or complaint; or
 - (4) to inform individuals in the workplace of the nature and extent of the risk of violence or harassment there; or
 - ii. as required by law.
- f. Any personal information that is disclosed under paragraph 2(E) in respect of an incident or complaint of violence or harassment will be the minimum amount necessary for the purpose for which it is being disclosed; and

- g. The existence of this policy and the procedures contained herein do not limit an individual in the exercises of any other rights pursuant to any other law.

3. Authority
