NCTR & IMAGINE A CANADA PROGRAM are asking all school age children to imagine reconciliation in the country. K-5 are invited to submit a work of art, essay or other performance that expresses their vision of reconciliation in the country. The rest of the students are encouraged to go further by submitting a plan and budget for their vision of reconciliation in the community or school. Winners in the K-5 will be honored at a national ceremony and be able to participate in online leadership training exercises. The other winners will receive a micro-grant to realize their vision of reconciliation in the country. For more information visit <https://nctr.ca/education/educational-programs/imagine-a-canada/>

ALICE ELSTON AWARD – WHO ARE YOU NOMINATING?
