ARE YOU INTEGRATING CLIMATE CHANGE EDUCATION into your classroom? Researchers at Lakehead University are conducting research on K-12 climate change education practices and teacher beliefs. They are interested in diverse and creative ways that climate change education is being integrated in schools across Canada as well as barriers that teachers experience. This research is voluntary and has two parts: 1) 15-minute survey; and, 2) follow-up interview. Interviewees will receive a $50 honorarium. For more info, contact: efield@lakeheadu.ca Survey link: <https://forms.gle/C2ys7f1e6TZDDDiv9>

IT'S THE LAST DAY TO TAKE THE PD SURVEY!

This 5-minute survey guides the PD office and committee in their planning for the upcoming school year.
